

KNIGHTS OF ST. GEORGE

Give a Picnic That is a Perfect Success.

A FINE PARADE IN THE MORNING.

Participated in by Other Friendly Societies—The Usual Picnic Festivities Indulged in with Zest. Some of the Clergy Visit the Park.

The picnic, given yesterday at Wheeling Park by the Cathedral Knights of St. George, was a great success. Over 700 people passed through the gates. It was a nice crowd of good people, and everybody seemed to have a pleasant time.

About nine o'clock in the morning the parade of the Knights and other societies was held, several streets of the city being traversed. The parade was formed and marched in the following order:

Chief Marshal, T. S. Riley; F. Biedebach, Marshal of the St. Alphonsus society, and Aldes, B. Bach, John Foose and J. Jochum.

J. Mohen, Marshal A. O. H., and Assistant Marshal Will Coyte.

Opera House band, headed by United States flag.

St. Alphonsus Knights of St. George. St. Alphonsus Benevolent society. Ancient Order of Hibernians.

After the parade the knights boarded the 10 o'clock motor and rode out to the Park. A great many of their friends took the same motor.

It was not until 1 o'clock that the crowd began to go out. The motors at that hour were crowded, as were the 2, 3 and 4 o'clock trains.

At the Park the usual festivities were indulged in. The dancing platform was patronized well enough not to be uncomfortable; the refreshment stand on the mound did a big business, and the merry-go-round also had its share.

Many families had brought lunch along and the tables on the mound and in the pavilion were filled with merry parties.

Though the weather was warm and hardly any breeze stirring, yet all seemed to enjoy themselves.

The Opera House orchestra played on the dancing pavilion, and on the mound the strains of the Opera House band entertained many auditors.

The picnic was a success, and though the Knights may not have made much money, yet they have the satisfaction of knowing that all who were there had a pleasant time. A great deal of the credit for the success is owing to the committee, Messrs. J. A. Blum, the chairman, and Messrs. James Fitzsimmons, A. J. Yahn, A. J. McGarrell and M. Whalen.

A perfect flock of political candidates was at the picnic and scattered smiles about.

Among those of the clergy who attended were Rt. Rev. Bishop Kain and Rev. Fathers McElligott and Reynolds, of the Cathedral, and Father Mattingly, of Martin's Ferry.

IN A FIT OF ANGER

Charles Roland Hursts a Blood Vessel and May Die.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, August 24.—Charles Roland, an old farmer living on the Ohio side, opposite Willow Island, broke a blood vessel in a fit of excitement and anger this afternoon, and is now in a dying condition.

This morning Roland leased his farm to an oil operator named Bly, for which he received a bonus of $40. In the afternoon a man named Rounds from Marietta went to Mr. Roland to secure the same lease. He was too late.

He, however, told Roland that if he had waited longer he (Rounds) would have given him $100 bonus. This was too much for Roland. He became angry because he had been so hasty, and he worked himself into a state of excitement with the above result.

Probably Fatal Balloon Disaster.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

SISTERSVILLE, W. Va., August 24.—During the balloon ascension at the Tyler county fair at Middlebourne today, when the balloon was about one hundred feet from the ground it burst and the lady occupant fell and was seriously injured, and at present it is thought she will not recover.

Mercer County Republicans.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., August 24.—The county convention met today and nominated a full ticket amid great enthusiasm. Hon. S. C. Burdett made a telling speech to fifteen hundred people.

ALAS! POOR YORICK.

Tragedian James Owen O'Connor is 'to Have His Sanity Legally Tested.

New York, August 24.—James Owen O'Connor, whose peculiar impersonation of Hamlet and other Shakespearean roles have made him well known throughout the country, was committed to the Hudson county jail by Police Justice Kimmerly yesterday for an examination into his sanity.

He owns a neat residence at No. 41 Storm avenue, Jersey City Heights. Yesterday morning his wife told Policeman Clemenson that O'Connor was acting very strangely, and she was afraid he would hurt somebody. Officer Clemenson took O'Connor to the Municipal police station. He was quiet until the Justice called his name. Then, with a shout, "Ha! ha! I have thee now," he sprang to his feet and struck savagely at foes invisible to others in the courtroom.

Policeman Wolverton tried to quiet him, and received a vigorous whack in the face. O'Connor then subsided, and Justice Kimmerly then informed him that he would have to go to the county jail for ten days and receive attention from the county physician.

"But, most upright judge," said the tragedian, "I have an important, professional engagement at the Star theatre on Broadway, this evening, and shall be obliged, painfully obliged, mark ye, to disobey your order and be absent from the jail."

When two policemen led him away, O'Connor with bowed head and folded arms, said with a sigh: "It's no use. All the world is against me."

BENWOOD.

Industrial Items, Personal Gossip and General News Notes.

At the meeting of Council Tuesday night the application of the Terminal company for a grant to lay a track along Water street, parallel with the Ohio River track, was read and discussed.

Council appointed a committee of three to interview all those holding property on that street, which will be damaged thereby, and ascertain the amount of damages they wish. The engineer of the road is to accompany the committee in order that all the parties may have a clear idea of just where the track would pass and to what extent they would suffer. The same committee is also to interview citizens residing on the streets upon which the Citizens' Street Railway company is desirous of laying a double track.

Lan Cogley, who fractured his leg about a month ago, while stepping from a train, has been taken to the hospital. The leg did not heal as it should, and it was necessary to break it over and reset it.

BELLARE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

Senator Snyder, the colleague of Senator J. W. Nichols in the Ohio state senate, will not likely ever see Columbus again. He was taken with the grip after the election last fall and was unable to attend his legislative duties, except in the senatorial contest he went to Columbus and voted for John Sherman, in spite of the protests of his physician. He returned to his home at once and has been an invalid ever since, the malady developing into Bright's disease.

Marshal Johnson and Constable Baugh attempted to arrest a fellow named Tobin yesterday, but he escaped both by a quick return movement. He started through the Italian ranch in lower town, and both officers ran around, one on each side of the house, while Tobin quietly walked out the front door, where he went in, and got some distance away while the officers hunted the rear of the house.

The City Council the other night authorized the finance committee to renew $2,500 bonds due to-morrow, and granted Jacob Heatherington permission to run a narrow gauge track to his coal works instead of the present tramway under an ordinance, and authorized the street and alloy and the sewer committees to make repairs that are badly needed.

It will be sad news to the hosts of friends of Jesse R. Purnell to know that his illness is fatal, and it is now only a question of time how long he will last. He always retained his membership with West Virginia Knights Templar, though he has been a resident of Ohio several years.

J. B. Smith and wife, of this city, will attend the fifty-ninth anniversary of the marriage of William and Sarah Lockard, in Columbiana county. Golden weddings are rare, but the celebrations of fifty-ninth anniversaries are rarer.

Will F. Henry, the young druggist, was married yesterday to Miss Hannah McGlinsey at the bride's home in Philadelphia. Mr. Charles Henry, sr., father of the groom, and a younger brother, Edward, were present from this city.

Some alarm was occasioned by a diptheria sign on Thirty-first street, but not more than the Board of Health desired. A little alarm in the presence of a contagious disease is a good thing.

Dr. D. W. Boone, James C. Tallman, Joseph McDonald, John D. Van Law and Emil Schmidt returned yesterday from a two weeks' outing at the head of the Kanawha River.

A number of Bellare people will go out to the harvest home picnic at Stewart's grove to-day. A few went to St. Clairsville last night to be on hands early.

Mayor McGowan handed in $107.24 for the last fiscal year, $50 of which was for keeping a gambling house, but it was a dull month.

N. S. Hopkins won the county pace at Middlebourne, W. Va., Tuesday; best time, 3:10. He took it in straight heats with Ida B.

Bishop J. M. Thoburn will spend next Sabbath with relatives in this city and will fill the pulpit in the First M. E. church.

Mrs. T. J. Hatcher and son, of Utica, O., are guests of Miss Nellie Beazle, at her home in the Fourth ward.

A church social will be held in Ludwig's carriage room near the Indian Run bridge Saturday night.

The Second Presbyterian Sunday school will picnic at Chestnut Point, on Indian run, this afternoon.

Mr. George W. Yost bought the residence property of William Sharp on Front street, Gravel Hill.

Many of our really good people will be in Wheeling to-morrow to see the parade and the animals.
